

SAVE the DATE

THURSDAY

JUNE 2, 2016

Public Interest Boot Camp

TRAINING AGENDA

9:00 am - 12:30 pm

- Introduction to Poverty Law and the Communities We Serve
- Cultural Competency-Who are our Clients?
- Ethics in Public Interest Law
- Language Access and Effective Interpreting

12:30 pm - 1:30 lunch (Brown Bag)

1:30 pm - 4:30 pm

- Working with Clients with Challenging Behaviors
- Client-Focused Interview Strategies

MCLE credit is available to attorneys, including 1 hour of Ethics and 2 hours of Elimination of Bias

The Public Interest Boot Camp is a free training program for summer public interest law students holding internships at public interest law agencies, government, and other legal organizations that serve low and moderate income individuals.

Practising Law Institute (PLI) will be hosting registration to this training. We will announce when registration is open at a later date. Groupcasts will also be available at various local locations (Bay Area, Sacramento, Southern California, and San Diego).

If you are interested in hosting a groupcast, please email Rodney Low at rodney.low@calbar.ca.gov

Organizations/Law Schools: Please indicate whether you will be sending your summer law clerks by emailing the number of students to michael.dayao@calbar.ca.gov